

NEW!

2020 $10 2 oz. 99.99% PURE SILVER COIN – CANADA GOOSE

For centuries, flocks of Canada geese flying overhead have signalled the changing seasons, a fixture so deeply rooted in the Canadian psyche that artist Alex Colville proposed the Canada goose and its “serene, dynamic quality” for the Centennial Dollar in 1967.

This coin features Colville’s design that highlights the goose’s strong, streamlined body that enables it to fly great distances. Numerous geese will fly together in a V-formation to create air currents the geese can ride to save energy and travel as much as 1,000 km in a single day!

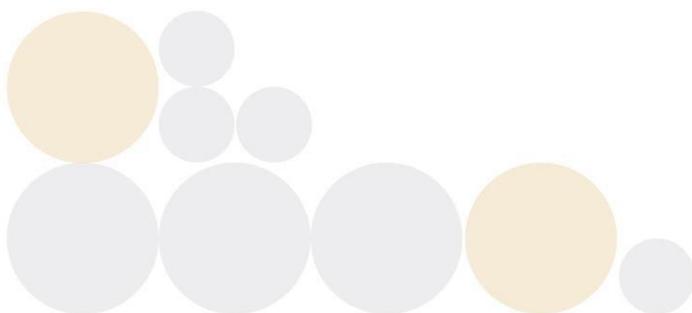

The Canada goose nests throughout Canada and follows various migration routes south, the longest beginning on the northern tundra and ending in the southern US and Mexico. Climate change is prompting more populations to overwinter in Canada, and some have begun nesting in western Greenland. The Canada goose was introduced to Britain in the 17th century, and was later brought to the Continent as a game bird. Its presence there is likely to evolve as their numbers continue to rise.

ACTUAL SIZE

SECURITY FEATURE

SPECIAL FEATURES

- To mark the 100th anniversary of his birth, we turned Alex Colville's centennial celebration of Canada into our centennial celebration of the artist.
- Features the mirror image of Alex Colville's iconic design.
- A striking addition to any Canadiana- or nature-themed collection.
- Unique cutting-edge security feature – micro engraved laser maple leaf (20) in the coin field.
- A unique 2 oz. weight featuring a $10 CAD denomination.

PRODUCT SPECIFICATIONS

Mint:	Royal Canadian Mint
Item Number:	177609
Composition:	99.99% pure silver
Weight*:	2 oz. (62.28 g)
Diameter:	38 mm
Face Value:	10 dollars (CAN)
Finish:	Bullion
Edge:	Serrated
Box quantity:	280
Packaging:	Tubes
Artist:	Alex Colville